

MICHIGAN HORIZONS

URBAN FUTURES: MICHIGAN CITIES BICENTENNIAL SYMPOSIUM

November 14, 2017 | 3:00 p.m. | Rackham Amphitheatre

Urban Futures brings together urban leaders from across the state for a conversation about how Michigan cities are challenging a public image of dereliction and decline and positioning themselves for the next century. Following the two keynote speakers, a panel of experts will respond and lead a discussion with the speakers and audience.

Speakers:

ARTHUR JEMISON

Director of Housing and Revitalization, City of Detroit

SUZANNE SCHULZ

Director of Planning, City of Grand Rapids

Panelists:

MARGARET DEWAR

Professor Emerita of Urban and Regional Planning, Taubman College, University of Michigan

LOU GLAZER

President, Michigan Future, Inc.

DANIELLE LEWINSKI

Vice President and Director of Michigan Initiatives, Center for Community Progress

