The Center for Japanese Studies presents

3rd annual Ann Arbor JAPAN Week

Sunday, June 18th through Saturday, June 24th, 2017

SATURDAY, 6/3

- Cinetopia International Film Festival offers an Ann Arbor Japan Week preview screening of Hirune Hime / Napping Princess, Henry Ford Giant Screen, 20900 Oakwood Boulevard, Dearborn, 5:15pm.

SUNDAY, 6/11

- Cinetopia International Film Festival offers an Ann Arbor Japan Week preview screening of Hirune Hime / Napping Princess, Michigan Theater, 603 E. Liberty St., 12:05pm.

SUNDAY, 6/18

- Ann Arbor Japan Week Kickoff film screening of Princess Mononoke, Michigan Theater, 603 E. Liberty St., 4:30pm.

MONDAY, 6/19

- Conversation Tables with the University of Michigan Japanese Language Program, Thayer Building 1022, 202 Thayer St., 12:30-2pm. Practice Japanese with students, teachers and volunteers with the U-M Japanese Language Program. Sushi and Japanese snacks will be available.
- Shibori Dyeing, AADL Downtown Library: Secret Lab, 343 S. Fifth Ave., 2-4pm. Shibori is a Japanese dyeing technique that involves folding, twisting or bunching cloth and binding it, then dyeing it in indigo. We'll provide the supplies for you to dye one small piece of cotton cloth. This event is intended for grade 6 and up; children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.
- Fiber Arts Lab: Sashiko Embroidery, AADL Downtown Library: Secret Lab, 7-8:30pm. Fiber Arts Lab will be demonstrating the basics of sashiko stitching, a traditional embroidery style from Japan. They will provide everything you need to get started. Stop in and learn the basics. Grade 6 and up. Children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. All skill levels welcome.

TUESDAY, 6/20

- Japanese Flower Arranging Workshop with Ikebana International Detroit Chapter, Matthaei Botanical Gardens room 125, 1800 N. Dixboro, ages 8 and up; children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Advance registration required by June 16th, contact emcanosa@umich.edu. 3-4:30pm.
- Anime Screening with Animanía, Palmer Commons, Forum Hall, 100 Washtenaw Ave., 5:30-7:30pm, all ages.

WEDNESDAY, 6/21

- Gyotaku Fish Printing, AADL Downtown Library: Secret Lab, 343 S. Fifth Ave., 3-5pm. Gyotaku is a traditional Japanese method of printing fish, a practice which dates back to the mid-1800s. This form of nature printing may have been used by fishermen to record their catches, but has also become an art form of its own. Participants will print with rubber replicas of North American fish. All supplies will be provided. This event is intended for grade 6 and up; children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.
- Japanese Summer Festival (夏祭り) Games, Ann Arbor Summer Festival KidZone Tent, 5-8pm, ages 4-14.
- Karate with the Japanese Martial Arts Center, Ann Arbor Summer Festival, Power Center Lawn, 5-6pm.
- Taiko Performance by Godaiko Drummers, Ann Arbor Summer Festival, 8-8:25pm.

THURSDAY, 6/22

- Family Japanese Art Studio, University of Michigan Museum of Art Multi-Purpose Room, 525 S. State St., 11am-1pm & 2-4pm. Advance registration is required: email umma-program-registration@umich.edu (indicate date and time). Ages 6 and up; children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.
- Temaki-sushi workshop with Chef Nakano Kaede, AADL Downtown Library: Multi-Purpose Room, 343 S. Fifth Ave., 6-7:30pm. Demonstration of Japanese style temaki (hand-rolled) sushi by Chef Nakano, followed by a make-your-own workshop.

FRIDAY, 6/23

- Charles Baird Carillon Performance, Burton Memorial Tower. The carillon is not ADA-accessible (take the elevator to the eighth floor and then walk up two additional flights of stairs). Performance 12-12:20pm, tour 12:20-12:30pm. Assistant Professor and University carillonist Tiffany Ng will play a special premier of a new carillon arrangement of "Sakura" by Jeffrey R. Treviño, a professor at Cal State Monterey Bay. The performance will also include "One Summer's Day" from Spirited Away (2001), arranged for carillon by Isaac Levine (UM class of 2016), and the theme from Laputa: Castle in the Sky (1986).
- Japanese Video Games, University of Michigan Library Computer & Video Game Archive, Duderstadt Center Room B474, 2281 Bonisteel Blvd., 4-6pm. Come to the gaming center to enjoy playing games on the Nintendo Wii U, Nintendo 3DS, Nintendo 64, PS3, PS Vita, Sega Saturn, Wonderswan, Super Famicom and Atari systems.

SATURDAY, 6/24

- Storytime at the Museum: Japanese Art, University of Michigan Museum of Art (UMMA), 525 S. State St., meet in front of the UMMA store, 11:15am-12pm. Ages 4-7. Children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. No registration required.
