2009-2010 CKS KOREAN FILM SERIES

NORTH KOREA IN FILMS

Film Showings: 2 pm/Michigan Theatre/Free and Open to the Public

Entrenched in Isolationism, North Korean life and culture remains largely hidden to much of the world. The CKS Korean Film Series screened this year offers - through a range of filmmakers - a chance to glimpse beyond the border and a chance to experience the comedy, passion, and drama of humanity in this increasingly controversial region.

This presentation is sponsored by the Center for Korean Studies at the International Institute, College of Literature, Science and the Arts, the University of Michigan. It is made possible by the generous support of the Korea Foundation, the Nam family gift, and a U.S. Department of Education TITLE VI grant.
