

Double Counting Policies for Rackham Students Participating in the CogSci Grad Certificate

Single PhD + Certificate	Joint PhD + Certificate	Single/Joint PhD+Embedded Masters + Certificate	Single Masters + Certificate	Joint PhD/Masters + Certificate	Joint Masters/ Masters + Certificate
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No double counting limitations COGSCI 700 may be used to fulfill cognate requirements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No double counting limitations COGSCI 700 may be used to fulfill cognate requirements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Courses used for the PhD program may be double counted toward the grad certificate if the courses have not been counted towards the embedded masters. Otherwise, only up to 1/6 of the coursework from the embedded master's may count towards certificate requirements (see next column) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Only 1/6 of the master's program course work may be double counted with the certificate, provided the certificate is at least 10Hours (the CogSci Certificate is a minimum of 4 three-credit classes, for a total of 12 minimum credits) For example: 30 hours Mech Eng M.S.E. 15 hours Complex Systems CERT 30 hours divided by 6 = 5 5 is not more than half of the CERT 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Courses used for the PhD program may be double counted toward the grad certificate if the courses have not been counted towards the masters. Otherwise, only up to 1/6 of the coursework from the master's may count towards certificate requirements Students may use a combination of PhD/ and Masters coursework towards the certificate so long as the amount of coursework used from the Masters adheres to the 1/6 rule 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Only 1/6 of the master's program coursework per master's program may be double counted with the certificate, provided the certificate is at least 10 Hours (the CogSci Certificate is a minimum of 4 three-credit classes, for a total of 12 minimum credits) Triple Counting (eg, the course counts for both Master's and the certificate) is not allowed (only 2 degrees/ certificates can overlap)
Any type of graduate program + 2 or more graduate certificates
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> no double counting between any 2 certificates 					