

This competition is open to all Anthropology or Evolutionary Anthropology majors. There are two types of awards available – a research award or an award for financial assistance to present a paper at an appropriate professional meeting or conference.

Please complete this form and attach a statement containing the information listed below. Please submit completed applications and any questions to AnthroUGAwards@umich.edu, or hard copy at 101 WH.

Application deadlines: October 9, 2018, and March 12, 2019

Are you applying for a research activity award? _____ (Maximum award $1000)

Are you applying for assistance to present a paper? _____ (Maximum award $300)

Date: _____ UM ID: _____

Name: _____

Email address: _____

Local Address: _____

Phone number: _____ Cumulative GPA: _____

If you are working with human subjects, provide IRB # or waiver. If not applicable, indicate below:

ATTACH THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

- 1) A statement of your research project (up to 1000 words). The narrative should include your research question and goal, your methodology (how you plan to carry out your research), the project's significance (how it contributes to broader anthropological understandings), and the impact on your own educational process (for example, is the proposal solely independent research, research for your Honors Thesis, presentation of a paper at a major professional meeting, etc.). Include a timeline for when the research will be carried out.
- 2) A budget. This should include the expenses necessary to cover your research and the amount you are requesting from Anthropology. It should also include sources of funding you have already secured and other sources to which you are applying. Include your plan should additional funding not materialize.
- 3) A letter of recommendation. The letter should be from a faculty member familiar with your research—due 10/11/18 and 3/14/19.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

All awards are reported to the Office of Financial Aid and may impact your financial aid award status.

If you will be traveling outside of the U.S. relative to this funding, you must register with the UM travel registry and purchase UM required travel abroad health insurance through the MCompass system. No award can be paid out without proof of registration and this insurance.