|   |                              |                       |                               |  |                            |                      |   |   |  |   |                     |            | Libraries + Archives                |  |  |                                      |  |            |   |  |                            |  |                                      |   |
|---|------------------------------|-----------------------|-------------------------------|--|----------------------------|----------------------|---|---|--|---|---------------------|------------|-------------------------------------|--|--|--------------------------------------|--|------------|---|--|----------------------------|--|--------------------------------------|---|
| A. Official name of the organization  | A.Contact person             | B. Year of foundation |                               | D. The E. The city F. Short description of   | G. Types of holdings       |                      |   | 2. Existence of organizational archives related to its history  Yes  No |  | 3. Special collections/archives   | holdings/collection | program of | 6. Sourcces of funding              | 7. Rules of access to the library-archive  | 8. Measures that the library-archive to preserve copies of the holding |                                      | 9. Completed part of the preservation procedures   |            | ems when organization's arom the other promote use of a | rchival collection to for scand research on the cond | luct research in the exhib | I lectures organized r   | WOLKSHODS / SEITHING:                | conferences conferences programs                          |
| N   |                              |                       | professionalstaff members | approximate where the number of archives are locuments in the possession holdings/specialization holdings/specialization | Books Journals             | Newspapers Artifacts | Manuscripts Other                       | The date of the first set of the approxir documents                     | mate number of documents  The city where the archives are located            |   | Yes No              |            | support support endowment family or | Open to any interested individual s Open to Scholars/researcher individual S Eligibility criterias | Xerox copies placed in another location Microfilm copies copies copies | al None Not Partially co             | Not Partially completed Mostly completed Completed | pleted Yes |   | zation by'researchersNo Ye                       | organizacenter du      | organization / enter during the  the organization / center during the last five years (per year) | by the organization  / center during | organized by the chair/program during the last five years |
| 1)Library of the Armenian Catholicosate of Cilicia and 2)Arm. Cath. of Cilicia Archives     | Khatchig Dedeyan             | 1932                  | 4                             | Over Hundred thousand Antelias-Lebanon Madenataran, Archives section And Museum  | 80000 150 type             | e 70 type 2500       | tems 250 Old printed books (total=2395) | 1) 1249 Over hun2) 1641 encyclical                                  | ndred thousand ( letters, Antelias-lls, reports, pictures, etc.) Lebanon | Rescued Armenian Treasures, Halle University, Wittenberg, 2000     Armenian Relics of Cilicia, Athens, 2002 | х                   | х          | By the Catholicosate itself         | X Archives section needs H. H.'s Approval  |  | X Numbered, displayed process of con | yed in boxes, in themputarization              |            | X Seminars, cultural events and exhibits                |  | X 0                        | 5/year   | 1 each year                          | 0   |
| Armenian Catholic Patriarchate, Bzommar-Lebanon Armenian Catholic Patriarchate, Cairo-Egypt |                              |                       |                               |  |                            |                      |   |   |  |   |                     |            |                                     |  |  |                                      |  |            |   |  |                            |  |                                      |   |
| Armenian Catholic Patriarchate, Cairo-Egypt   |                              |                       |                               |  |                            |                      |   |   |  |   |                     |            |                                     |  |  |                                      |  |            |   |  |                            |  |                                      |   |
| Mekhitarist Congregation (Venice) Library/Museum  | Abbot: Fr. Yeghia Kilaghbian | 1717                  | 15-18 congregation members    | n Venice   | х                          | X                    | X                                       |   |  |   | Manuscripts         | х          | Brotherhood                         | x  |  |                                      |  |            |   | X  | X 0                        | 0  | 0                                    |   |
| The Patriarchate of Istanbul  |                              |                       |                               |  |                            |                      |   |   |  |   |                     |            |                                     |  |  |                                      |  |            |   |  |                            |  |                                      |   |
| Mekhitarist Congregation (Vienna) Library/Museum  | Bedros Kojoian               | 1810                  | 6-7 congregation members      | 302600 Vienna Books, manuscripts, newspapers, handicrafts, ceramics, silver smithery, sart, collection of oil canvases.  | 120000 armenian, + X 10000 | 170000               | 2600 8000 coins                         |   |  |   | Manuscripts         | Х          | Brotherhood                         | x  |  |                                      |  |            |   | Х  | X 0                        | 0  | 0                                    | 0   |