

William C. Rosenberg, Alfred C. Meyer Collegiate Professor of History, University of Michigan

CREES Colloquium

ROSENBERG's Russia

Friday April 9, 2010

3-6 pm

1636 International Institute, 1080 South University Ave.

U-M history alumnae Anne Gorsuch, Heather Hogan, Diane Koenker, and Anna Kuxhausen join Francis Blouin, professor of history and information and director, Bentley Historical Library, U-M, to present lectures in tribute to WILLIAM G. ROSENBERG.

ROSENBERG's Russia

Friday, April 9, 2010

3-6 pm

1636 International Institute, 1080 South University Ave.

William G. Rosenberg, scholar of the Russian Revolution, inspirational teacher, and gifted administrator is retiring at the end of the academic year as the Alfred G. Meyer Collegiate Professor of History at the University of Michigan. During his distinguished career, which has spanned 43 years at U-M, Bill Rosenberg played a key role in making Michigan a premier destination for graduate work in Russian/Soviet history and area studies. Bill also served as AAASS President, CREES Director, and Chair of the U-M Department of History.

Please join us on April 9, 2010 from 3-6 pm, as four of Bill Rosenberg's former graduate students and a colleague honor his contributions to CREES and the field of Russian history at U-M and across the globe.

For further information, please contact 734.764.0351 or crees@umich.edu.

Sponsored by the Center for Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies and the Department of History.

