

Application for Honors Concentration in Economics

Name:

Student ID #:

Email Address:

1. Please include an official transcript
2. Please provide a brief description (No more than 200 words) of your reasons for pursuing an honors concentration in economics

3. Please give a brief description of any previous experience doing original research (work done independently or as part of a class, research assistant, or summer internship)

4. What is your expected graduation term?

Please submit this application electronically, along with a copy of your official transcript and any questions you may have to econundergradoffice@umich.edu by the first Monday in November.