

Character Driven: Exploring the Career and Archives of Nancy Savoca

SYMPOSIUM

Friday, May 10

Gallery
Hatcher Graduate Library
913 S. University Avenue

12:00 p.m.

Opening Remarks

12:30 p.m.

How She Got It Made:
The Challenges of Financing Specialty Films
& Indie Productions

2:15 p.m.

True Love and Household Miracles:
A Conversation with Director Nancy Savoca

3:30 p.m.

A Semester with Savoca

4:00 p.m.

Ribbon Cutting & Exhibit Opening Reception

All symposium sessions are free and open to the public.

SCREENINGS

Friday, May 10

Auditorium A, Angell Hall
435 S. State Street, Ann Arbor

6:00 p.m.

Household Saints
(Cinetopia Film Festival admission)
Followed by Q&A

Saturday, May 11

Screening Room, Michigan Theater
603 East Liberty Street, Ann Arbor

12:30 pm.

Dirt
(Cinetopia Film Festival admission)
Panel discussion

Bringing a Multitude of Voices to the Screen:
Savoca's Diversity Explored

Sunday, May 12

Screening Room, Michigan Theater
603 East Liberty Street, Ann Arbor

1:30 p.m.

Dogfight
(Cinetopia Film Festival admission)
Followed by Q&A

EXHIBIT

Gallery, Hatcher Graduate Library
913 South University Avenue

May 9 – June 30

True to Life: Film Director Nancy Savoca's Quest for Authenticity