Keynote Address: Will History Absolve US/Them?

Angela D. Dillard

Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education
Richard A. Meisler Collegiate Professor of Afroamerican &
African Studies, History, and in the Residential College

Angela D. Dillard is the university's first vice provost for undergraduate education. An interdisciplinary scholar trained in history and political theory, she specializes in American and African American intellectual history, particularly around issues of race, religion, and politics on both the left and the right sides of the political spectrum. Professor Dillard is working on her third book on intersections between the civil rights movement and the rise of the new right from the 1960s to the present.
