 - d) Counsel- Tyler R. Watt (trwatt@umich.edu)
 - i) Did outreach to all committee leaders; I'll be working on doing the same for representatives this next week. EOYR will be printed once we have money. Website has been updated; let me know any issues you see! I am sponsoring four pieces of legislation tonight, and am looking forward to discussing these later.
 - e) Academic Relations Officer- Gabriela Torres (gctorres@umich.edu)
 - i) AAC discussions included the grading system of the LSA college, online class camera requirements, and the Election Day Drive. Everyone should have a group chat link that facilitates committee joining. Join AAC!
 - f) External Relations Officer- Mary McKillop (marykmck@umich.edu)
 - i) Appointments has been going well. There will be a DC email to go out to all LSA students reminding students to vote in the special election. Email will also include Appointments application. Special Election graphics are made and sent to Riya (Special Election ED). Please promote elections on your social media too! Encouraged Non voting members to apply to be an appointed representative.
 - g) Student Life Relations Officer- Anna Colvin (ancolvin@umich.edu)
 - i) SLC went well - they discussed the election day project (working with AAC and Gaby), and future SLC project ideas (including covid friendly study break, providing resources for students in dorms, maybe providing care packages for students in isolation). SLC meets Tuesdays 8-9pm. Planning volunteer session for all of the government to participate - likely with Maize & Blue Cupboard. Thinking about ways to make student government more accessible to constituents.
