2 ● General Office- $500

4 provides a therapeutic way for survivors in our office to receive care (especially in the 5 winter/gloomy months) $200

6 ○ $223 for 250 1.5” buttons

7 ○ $77 for advertising supplies to share between group

8 ● Survivor Care fund- $1,000

9 ○ The money in this fund works to make survivors feel more secure on and 10 off campus. This money ensures survivor’s peace of mind and make the survivor feel safe 11 from possible retaliation.

12 ○ $500 hotel rooms, provides survivors a place to live who do not have 13 access to anywhere else to stay (such as close friends or families) and do not comfortable
14 seeking housing at a shelter.

15 ○ $400 new phone, survivors of stalking and IPV are sometimes targeted 16 via electronic devices. Enabling them a new phone will give them a secure number they

22 ○ that SAPAC would create for the campus community raising awareness
23 for sexual violence prevention

24 ● Additional funds for our three volunteer groups and peer-led support group- $2,000

25 ○ We would like to create a series of short clips to be shown in the Union,
26 the Duderstadt, the Athletic Center, etc. that promote SAPAC’s services to the U of M
27 community. We would like to educate students on the basics of consent, bystander
28 intervention, and promote the accessibility of the support services that SAPAC can 29 provide.

30 ○ Support for volunteer groups and Peer-Led Support Group - Overall we 31 have 108 active volunteers in three groups: BICE (Bystander Intervention and 32 Community Engagement), NPA (Networking, Publicity and Activism), and PE (Peer 33 Education).

34 ○ Our Peer-Led Support Group is run by two student volunteers. It is a 35 twice-weekly group for survivors to talk about their experiences or to engage in self care.

36 ○ Granting money to our volunteer groups could allow us to create more
37 events that raise awareness and enhance the events that we currently put on. Our current 38 events include workshops, art shows, music fests, public forums, dialogues, publicizing,
39 branding, and much more.

40 ○ As our groups grow, our volunteers wish to put on more events. If we 41 receive more funding, we could reach our volunteer’s goals for new campus wide events.
