

Celebrate the 150th Anniversary of Cavafy with...

A Date with Cavafy

an open mic event

April 29, 2013 · 4-6pm
Hatcher Graduate Library
Gallery (room 100)
University of Michigan

The Modern Greek Program at the University of Michigan is celebrating the 150th anniversary of Cavafy's birth and the 80th anniversary of his death with an open mic event.

Constantine P. Cavafy (b. April 29, 1863, d. April 29, 1933) is the most important Greek poet since antiquity and one of the greatest modern poets. April 29 is the day of Cavafy's birth and death.

You are invited to...

- Read a Cavafy poem in any language
- Speak about your encounter with Cavafy
- Discuss a work
- Give a personal testimony
- Play or sing a song
- Bring a drawing
- Listen and enjoy the occasion
- Browse an exhibit of Cavafy books
- Share in Greek delicacies available throughout the event

Interested in finding poems you already know or others you do not? Visit the official Cavafy website: <http://www.kavafis.gr/>