

The University of Michigan Modern Greek Program Presents

Kisses to the Children

a documentary film by Vassilis Loules

This documentary reveals the experiences of 5 Greek-Jewish children during WWII who were hidden by Christian families and “missed the train to Auschwitz”. Now elderly, these five survivors, relate their experiences of the war, the German occupation of Greece (1941—44), and their years in hiding.

Q & A with Director Vassilis Loules after Screening

7PM, Thursday, October 22, 2015

Chemistry Building 1210, 930 University Ave., Ann Arbor, 48109

Free and Open to the Public

Holocaust Memorial Center (Michigan)

LSA

JEAN & SAMUEL FRANKEL
CENTER FOR JUDAIC STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

CLASSICAL STUDIES
MODERN GREEK
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN