

Department of Political Science Political Internship Program (Fall 2023 - PS399)

University of Michigan Political Science Department invites Junior and Senior Political Science Students to gain course credit for Internships (remote and in-person) with Michigan state legislators, Michigan Senators and Members of Congress, federal and local courts,

non-profit organizations, legal professionals,
the media, and more.

3-credit Political Science course

- Involves a minimum commitment of 12 hours per week with placement
 - Students must line up their own internships, but are provided with one-on-one guidance in finding placement opportunities
 - Course work entails weekly online class discussion entries, three personal interviews/papers, and monthly evening remote seminar sessions with the Program Director
-

What do I get out of the Political Internship Program?

Preview of careers in the political, legal, and non-profit world
Visible, unique work experience for your resume
Letters of recommendation for law/graduate school applications or future job opportunities
Networking and leadership training experience

Acceptance into Internship Program is based on application and personal interview.
Interviews will be scheduled starting immediately and run through the fall term .

Applications and information available by contacting:
Dr. Debra Horner (dhorner@umich.edu)