

STUDY ITALIAN TO COMPLETE THE LSA LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT!

If you have no previous experience with Italian, start at Italian 101. If you previously studied Italian, you must take the Italian placement test and start with the course in which the test places you.

NOTE: Availability of these courses, on campus and abroad, is subject to change.

Italian 101

Elementary Pt 1
On Campus
F/W

Italian 102

Elementary Pt 2
On Campus
F/W

Italian 231

2nd Year
On Campus
F/W

Italian 232

2nd Year, Cont.
On Campus
F/W

Then, you can take major/minor level courses taught in Italian (235+)! Upper level courses taught in English may be taken concurrently with 101-232 & count toward the Italian major/minor!

Italian 230

2nd Year Intensive
On Campus Sp OR
Spring Abroad

Learning Spanish? Start here!

Italian 410

Italian for Spanish
Speakers
On Campus
Fall only

Italian 410 is a step toward the Italian major or minor for students who have completed Spanish 277.

Proceed to Italian 235+ courses next.

Have questions? Want to learn more?

Visit: <https://lsa.umich.edu/rll> or

Contact: rll.mailbox@umich.edu !

