

PREREQUISITE COURSE

Sociology majors must take one introductory sociology course. First and second year students should enroll in either SOC 100: Intro to Soc or SOC 102: Intro to Soc: Special Topics. Third and fourth year students should enroll in either SOC 300: Principles and Problems of Sociology or SOC 302: Health & Society - Intro to Soc. The credits from the prerequisite course are not included in the 33 required credits. In order to declare, students must complete a prerequisite course with a C- or higher. Students should only take ONE prerequisite course; no credit will be granted for the second prerequisite course taken.

REQUIREMENTS

To complete a major in sociology, a student must take at least 33 credit hours of SOC coursework at the 200-level or above (excluding SOC 300 and SOC 302). These 33 credits consist of three required courses and electives. Students must earn at least a C- in every course they intend to include in the major, including the prerequisite.

REQUIRED COURSES

- SOC 210 or STATS 250 – Statistics
Both fulfill the LSA Quantitative Reasoning (QR) requirement. SOC 210 and STATS 250 are typically offered each fall, winter, and at least one spring or summer semester.
- SOC 310 – Introduction to Sociological Research Methods
Fulfills the LSA Quantitative Reasoning (QR) requirement. Also fulfills the Upper Level Writing Requirement (ULWR) when elected in the fall or winter term. SOC 310 is offered each fall and winter and at least one spring or summer semester. Must be taken on the UM Ann Arbor campus.
- SOC 305 – Introduction to Sociological Theory
Typically offered each fall and winter full term and at least one spring or summer semester. Must be taken on the UM Ann Arbor campus.

REMAINING CREDITS (ELECTIVES)

- The remaining credits are SOC courses at the 200-level and above.
- A minimum of 14 elective credits elected at the 300-level or above (excluding SOC 300 and SOC 302).

Students who wish to focus elective coursework on a particular area are encouraged to consult with the department advisor about an optional subplan in Law, Justice, and & Change, Sociology of Health & Medicine, or Sociology & Social Work (see page 2).

COURSE PLANNING

No particular order of coursework is required. The Department strongly recommends that majors take statistics in the sophomore year or early in the junior year and complete SOC 310 and SOC 305 in the junior year (preferably not in the same term).

POLICY GUIDELINES

Minimum Grades and GPA

Students must earn at least a C- in every course in order to be counted toward the major, including the prerequisite. Grades below a C- will still be included in the major GPA, but will not count toward the 33 credits required for the major. In order to graduate, Sociology majors must have a major GPA of at least a 2.0. The major GPA includes the prerequisite, all required, and all elective courses (including STATS 250, cross-listed courses, and any SOC courses taken at the Dearborn or Flint campuses).

Credit Requirements and Limitations

SOC 305 and SOC 310 must be taken in-residence on the UM: Ann Arbor campus. Only 15 of the 33 credit hours required for the sociology major can be transfer credit from other institutions.

A limit of 8 credits from courses earning experiential or independent study style credits (as determined by the College of LSA) may be counted toward the major. This includes but is not limited to SOC 225, 321, 324, 325, 391, 394, 395, 396, 468, and 488.

Only 4 credits from SOC 225: Project Community may be included in the major.
