Undergrad Writing Programs

Peer Writing Program

The Sweetland Peer Writing Program provides undergraduate students from across the University with an opportunity to assist fellow U-M undergrads with their writing in our Sweetland Peer Writing Centers. Becoming a writing consultant gives students the opportunity to work with others on their writing, enjoy conversations about interesting topics, help to solve writing challenges, and support effective writing processes.

Minor in Writing

Sweetland's Minor in Writing is designed for any undergraduate student who is interested in developing further as a writer, both in and beyond their major, and wants to join a vibrant community of writers. Our Minors come from departments all over campus, with diverse backgrounds, interests, and talents that unite to create a truly dynamic program.

Students must apply to and be accepted by the Sweetland Center for Writing. Applications for the Minor are accepted twice a year, in mid-October & mid-March. Applications for the Peer Writing Program are accepted once a year, in mid-October.
