CINDY SCHIPANI, J.D.

MERWIN H. WATERMAN COLLEGIATE
PROFESSOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION AND

Dr. Schipani was nominated by:
Charlene Franke

Professor Cindy Schipani is the biggest reason why I have looked forward to my research and our meetings every week, and why our project's mission has become so meaningful to me. I look forward to seeing her and discussing our research progress every week. The pride I feel after seeing Professor Schipani's satisfaction with my work has also become an emotional reserve for tough times during the remainder of the project. Professor Schipani has become my strongest female role model at the University of Michigan.
